

Aim: Practice expressing opinions and learning descriptive adjectives

Activity: Choosing which qualities would make a best friend and which qualities would make an undesirable friend

Step 1:

Partner work: Put the following adjectives into one of these three categories:

Best friend – Undesirable friend – Not relevant confident	unforgiving

handsome / beautiful	trustworthy / reliable outgoing	reserved
intelligent	timid
punctual	intolerant
fun-loving	rich / well off curious / inquisitive mind	sporty open-minded	creative nasty / mean	jealous free spirit	well-travelled from the same social background	entertaining ambitious	thankful
appreciative	attentive
loyal	unfaithful / dishonest selfish	uncomprehending

Step 2:

Single work: How should a best friend be in your eyes? What makes a friend a good friend? Why are the friends you have your friends? What do you appreciate them for? Write a short text with the title "Friendship".